

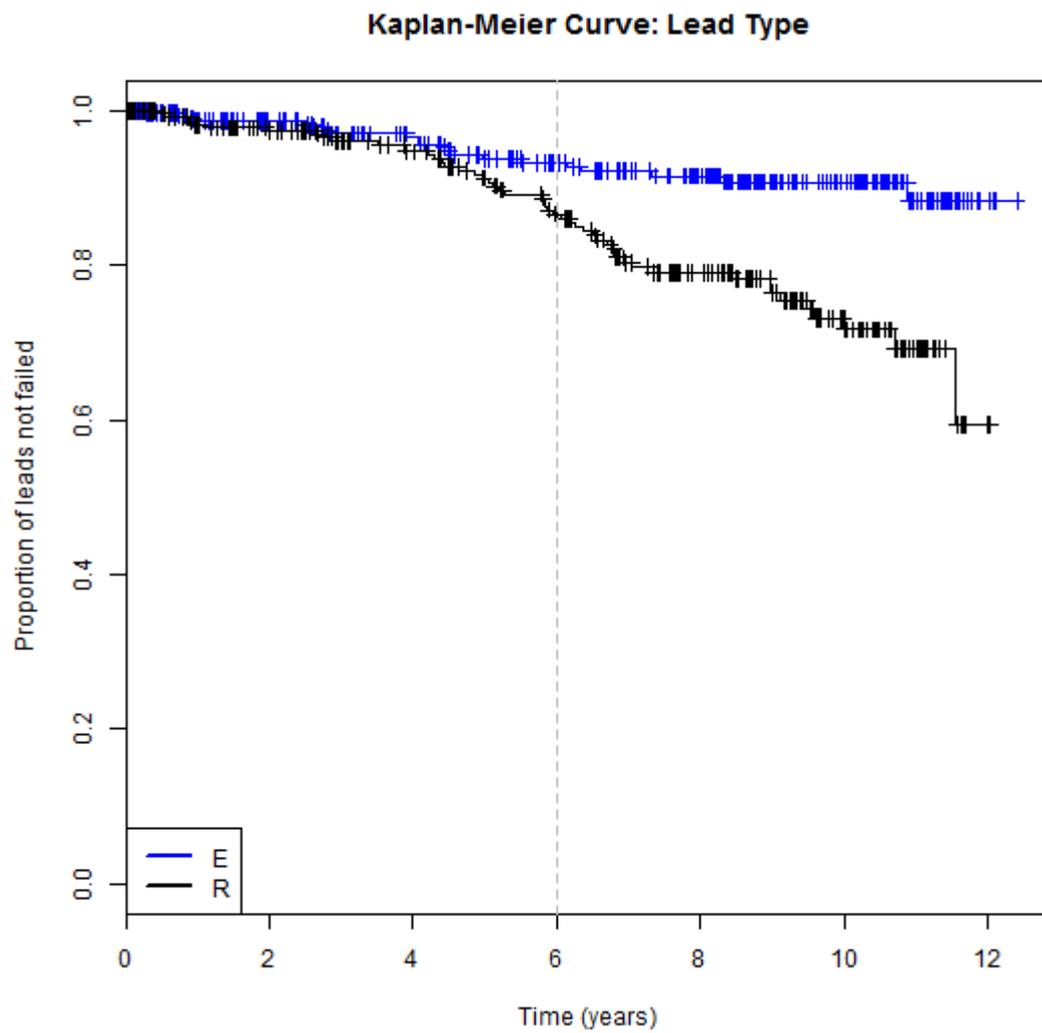

Figure I: Kaplan-Meier curve showing the estimated survival function for the leads by lead type

Vertical tick-marks indicate where a lead's failure time has been right-censored. The vertical, dashed line shows the cut-off time of 6 years to be used for stratifying the effect of lead type by time period following implantation.